

Consulate-General of Japan in San Francisco

invites you to a lecture

History of Japanese Americans and Their Contribution to the LARA Relief Activities in the Post-War Years

~日系アメリカ人史の概観と LARA 物資輸送への日系人の貢献~

Thursday, June 22, 2006

4:00 p.m.–5:30 p.m.

Stanford University, Encina Hall, Ground Floor Conference Room

Open to the public

Professor Masako Iino
President of Tsuda College

Professor Iino will discuss how the relations between the US and Japan affected the status of Japanese Americans on the West Coast of North America. She will cover the role played by the Japanese Americans in the relief activities of LARA (Licensed Agencies for Relief in Asia) in the Post-War Years. By examining the role that they played, she explores the complexity of responses surrounding issues of loyalty, ethnic identity and identification among people of Japanese ancestry who were caught in the cross-fire of international politics.

For more information, contact Gary Mukai, Stanford University, 650-723-1116, gmukai@stanford.edu

Co-sponsored by:
Shorenstein Asia Pacific Research Center

Center for East Asian Studies
Stanford Program on International and Cross-cultural Education, Freeman Spogli Institute for International Studies
Stanford University